What Federations' Core Funding Allows Us To Do

Any and all financial support is essential to The Jewish Agency's work but Federations' unrestricted core support is the most indispensable, allowing us to:

- Sustain critical services for many years, even when money from other foundations and funders has run out.
- Allocate funds quickly where and when they are needed the most, including:
  - In response to crises occurring in the Jewish world
  - When there are sudden emergencies, such as Operation Guardian of the Walls and the COVID-19 pandemic
  - To develop and launch new programs
- Leverage funds from philanthropic and government sources that require an organizational match or commitment.
- Perform crucial activities—from payroll and accounting to marketing to staff training and security and much more—without which our programs and services could not operate.

Jewish Federations' core support makes EVERY SINGLE THING we do possible and is The Jewish Agency's most substantial source of unrestricted funding. That support is the reason why we can make such an extraordinary difference in the lives of so many Jews, together.
